

CHOIR REHEARSAL PROCEDURES

- I. The Students will be in their assigned place ready to sing with their folder, all music, and a sharpened pencil prior to the tardy bell. Any student not prepared as stated above, without a written excuse from the office, another teacher or prior permission from the director, will receive an unexcused tardy.
- II. Students will have music in rehearsal order, as given on the board, prior to the tardy bell. Students will actively participate in all choir rehearsals as instructed by the director.
- III. Unless otherwise instructed, the students will raise their hand and receive permission prior to speaking during class.
- IV. The student will not engage in any disruptive behavior or horseplay (Physical Contact) at any time in the choir hall. In addition, no sexually affectionate physical contact or harassment of any nature between students will be tolerated.
- V. ONLY the director will dismiss the class. The bell does not dismiss the class.
